

CALDWELL'S BOMB* ENCORE AS FINALIST IN THE VENUS/ADONIS THEATER FESTIVAL

Caldwell's Bomb by Bill Rogers will have an encore performance on Wednesday, March 9 at 6PM at the Hudson Guild Theatre located at 441 W. 26th St. (between 9th and 10th Avenues) as a nominee in the BEST PLAY category of the 2016 Venus/Adonis Theater Festival.

Caldwell's Bomb is a dark comedy that tells the story of a timid, slow-witted young man's encounter with domestic terrorists in Southwest Missouri during the summer of 2010.

This Equity Approved Showcase production features Michael Gnat*, Matthew Tyler Horn*, Donna Lee Michaels*, and Mark Torres*.

Gerald vanHeerden is nominated in the Festival's BEST DIRECTOR category. Mr. Gnat and Mr. Horn are nominees in the BEST ACTOR category.

Tamra Pica is the Producing Director/Casting Director, Liz Ann Howell* is the Production Stage Manager and Monica Fritcher designed the costumes.

The play runs approximately 85 minutes.

Tickets are $18 at the door.

*These Actors and Stage Manager are appearing courtesy of Actors' Equity Association.

Pictured: Matthew Tyler Horn*, Donna Lee Michaels*, Micheal Gnat*, Mark Torres